Ministry of Justice Signs MoU with QatarDebate Center

Doha – QatarDebate

QatarDebate Center (QD) a member of Qatar Foundation (QF), and Ministry of Justice of the State of Qatar that represented by the Legal and Judicial Studies Center signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Monday, recognizing the mutual interest in the fields of legal education excellence, legal skills training and development and dissemination of Legal knowledge.

The two entities will collaborate in all legal, academic and professional areas to enhance and qualify legal officers and members of judicial bodies for legal work.

The agreement was signed by Dr. Hayat Abdullah Maarafi, Executive Director of QatarDebate Center, and Fatima Abdulaziz Bilal, Director of Legal and Judicial Studies Center at a ceremony held in Qatar Debate office on October 2, 2017, at Students Center, Education City.

PRESS RELEASE

Dr. Hayat Maarafi commented on the new partnership saying: “We need the language of dialogue more than ever and the ability to discuss the violator with high moral and accept/ respect the opinions of others and refute the argument and raise the level of thought”.

Fatima Abdulaziz Bilal commented on the MoU saying: “The Legal and Judicial Studies Center mission is to improve the level of legal and judicial training in the country and the belief in the importance of learning the art of debate. Therefore, the center adopted new training programs that were not before proposed to support and develop the skill of dialogue and debate in the legal work and this is the goal of this cooperation between the Ministry of Justice and QatarDebate”.

The MoU between QatarDebate Center and Legal and Judicial Studies Center will see a close collaboration in organizing seminars, debates, seminars, visits and workshops on subjects of mutual interest.

The agreement will also allow the two parties to exchange Reports, Bulletins, Scientific Journals, and any means or devices that reinforce legal knowledge and skills, as well as the Legal and judicial training programs adopted by the parties.
